

ann bäck made
design with an attitude

Ann Bäck majored in sculpture at the Nykarleby art school in Finland. After finishing her studies in 1990, she had a number of exhibitions and worked as a teacher in art before founding her own business, galleriAnn 1998.

Her daily inspiration Ann finds from the scandinavian nature, in daily life and thru traveling. Characteristic for her design is optimism, joy and colour. She loves flowers in all forms and her patterns often contains organic elements, humour is never far away.

She mixes painting, drawing with modern technology in her designs.
