You design – We print!

TekoTryck

We deliver screen printed Swedish dishcloths, kitchen towels and velour towels of the highest quality to designers, companies, chain stores and distributors worldwide.

The original. Teko Tryck introduced the screen printed Swedish dishcloth on the market 1994. Most design and promotion cloths on the world market are printed by us in Sölvesborg, in south Sweden. We are an international company, delivering to eg Germany, France, USA, Canada, Japan, South Korea, Australia and more.

We believe that blue is green; and so are red and yellow

We use water based ink with minimum environmental impact. They are blended in our colour room in order to provide the exact shade for the company logo or the exact yellow tone you imagined when you created your pattern. For us it is simply a matter of respect – for nature and for what is important to you. Respect is an integral aspect for creating long-term relationships with both customers and suppliers and this represents a key objective for us. This leads to significantly improved results. And it makes our work far more interesting.

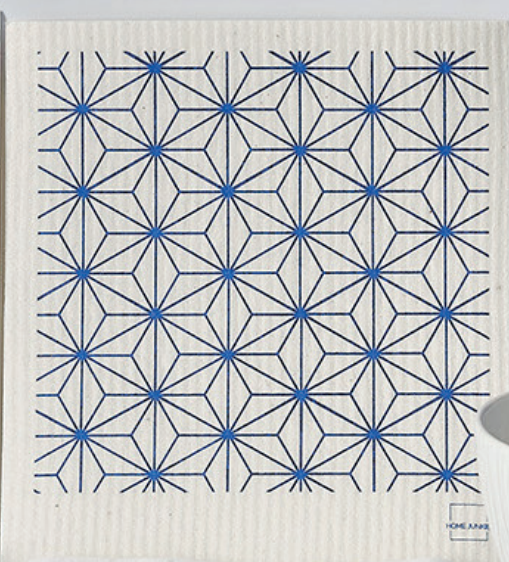

Benefit from our partners

We would like to recommend Formpress on the island of Öland. They offer the opportunity to print your designs or messages on serving trays crafted in birch veneer, coasters and tray tables. Visit their website formpress.com.

Our Everyday Hero

The Swedish Dishcloth

The original since 1994. Teko Tryck introduced the screen printed dishcloths on the market 1994, since then millions of cloths have left our factory. This pure natural product will cheer up the kitchen work with your unique design, everyday!

We print for, among others, H&M, Moomin, Lisa Larson, Nobel Peace Center, Disney, Zarah Home, Anneko Design Sweden and Galleri Ann. For us, all jobs and customers are equally important and we see ourselves as a part of your team. We can print for you as well – be inspired!

We Want to Contribute

The Swedish dishcloth is made of 100 % biodegradable material – cellulose from FSC-certified forest and cotton from waste production (cotton fibers that are too short for textile industry use). Once the cloth reaches the end of its service life, it makes its way to the compost, where it decomposes in 8–12 weeks.

The dishcloth was invented by engineer Curt Lindqvist in Sweden as early as 1949. A great deal has happened since the invention, but our everyday hero, remains the same.

An eco-friendly, compostable everyday hero

The Swedish dishcloth is more than “just” incredibly useful – it is also kind to the environment. The cloth helps to cut consumption of paper towels and is the perfect replacement for other cloths, which often contain plastic. What is more, it can be washed in the washing machine or dishwasher, or even boiled. Then it can be reused a limitless number of times. Well, almost limitless. The inks we use for the printing are of course water based and eco-friendly. The dishcloth is taken for granted in Sweden – a natural part of our everyday life. In our opinion, the dishcloth is an everyday hero that will benefit the rest of the world too.

A Perfect Match!

Dyed Swedish Dishcloths

Beside the printed dishcloths, we offer dyed dishcloths in any colour you wish for. A lovely product to match your collection.

Choose your own PMS U colour for plain cloths. Dyed with GOTS-colours (Global Organic Textile standard). We deliver them folded or unfolded and unprinted. After the dyeing process they will decrease in size but almost regain its normal size in wet condition (approximately 190x185 mm). The dyed dishcloths look beautiful packed with a paper banner.

Kitchen Towels

Teko Tryck provides you with a kitchen towel which will be in demand and used year after year. On this kind of fabric we can print very detailed things. The structure gives texture and depth.

Our kitchen towels are sewn and woven in Latvia or Lithuania and are available in two qualities. Production this close to Sweden is good for the environment, as well as helping us cut lead times.

Printed here in Sweden with our water based and environmentally friendly ink. Washable in 40 degrees Celsius.

Textile Bags

A better alternative for the environment than plastic bags.

Anyone can use a textile bag! And the textile bag is, apart from a practical commercial attribute, a better alternative than the plastic bag for the environment. It's appreciated both as a giveaway and as a product in your assortment. With your own print on, it's a unique product. It fits for all kind of motives – logo, illustration and text.

We have many different suppliers and environmental alternatives.

Make-Up Pads

Using pads in 100% natural materials, you can easily remove make-up.

The pads can then be cleaned in a washing machine, to be re-used, over and over. Great both for your wallet and the environment.

Pads are made from 70% cellulose from FSC certified forest and 30% cotton from textile industry bi-products. Can be punched to any size and shape, then packed according to your specifications, e.g. in a washing net or a branded paper box.

Selected Favourites

William Morris

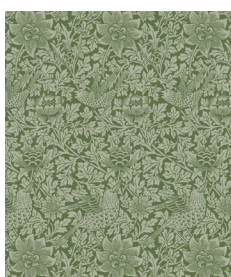

Bring joy to any occasion with our William Morris designs, beautifully printed on Swedish dishcloths and kitchen towels.

TekoTryck has a unique co-operation with William Morris Society and we offer a standard range of some cherry-picked classics, printed on our dishcloths and kitchen towels. Are you looking for more patterns than the ones on display here? Contact us for more information.

TekoTryck holds the exclusive rights to feature the William Morris Society's copyrighted material, including images of William Morris and his signature, on screen-printed Swedish dishcloths and kitchen towels featuring William Morris designs worldwide.

William Morris was an artist, a craftsman, poet, scholar, and a revolutionary thinker.

Today, he may be best known for his wallpaper and patterns, but his work transformed Victorian England's view on craftsmanship, design and fashion.

Pack and promote your products

Packing, Labels & Distribution

Teko Tryck always tries to find the best solution for your request and offer custom made packaging after printing your products.

We are there for you all the way, from ideas to delivery of the products, in ways that suits you. We offer you solutions like plastic bags, cartons, labels and banners and we are always looking forward for new way to pack and promote your products.

Banners

Paper banners are a nice and price efficient alternative to pack dishcloths and kitchen towels.

Choose between white uncoated/coated or brown recycled paper, printed digital or in offset, in CMYK or just black. The banners are sealed with regular tape as standard.
