

Willam Morris Collection 2026

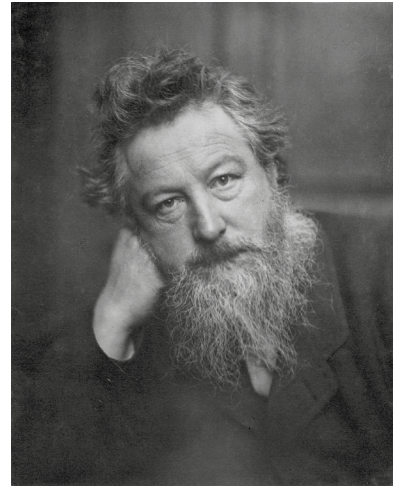

William Morris

William Morris (1834 - 1896) was an artist, a craftsman, poet, scholar, and a revolutionary thinker.

Today, he may be best known for his wallpaper and textile patterns, but his work transformed Victorian Britain's view on craftsmanship, design and fashion.

Morris became one of the most influential figures in the Arts and Crafts movement. He began experimenting with various crafts and designing furniture and interiors. He was personally involved in manufacture as well as design, which was the hallmark of the movement that advocated individuality and know-how over the mass production and uniformity of the industrialism.

The William Morris Society

The William Morris Society, is dedicated to safeguarding and preserving the heritage of William Morris, and to make his work and ideas available for future generations. Established in 1955, it is a membership organisation open to all and welcomes new members.

The Society operates from its museum in London, located in Morris's home in Hammersmith. The collections contain Morris's original works, manuscripts, and his personal artifacts; it is open for visitors.

QUALITY  CRAFTSMANSHIP

Printing with Passion and Swedish Quality

TekoTryck introduced the screen-printed Swedish dishcloth to the market in 1994. Today we are an international company, delivering the Swedish dishcloth all over the world.

We Are More than a Printing Company

Our team of experienced employees works with precision and dedication, creating genuine craftsmanship. With the help of our seven fully automated printing machines, we ensure the highest quality.

We work very closely with our customers, anyone from artwork designers to distributors, and deliver globally to countries such as USA, Canada, Japan and Australia. We don't just aspire to be your supplier; but also, your partner!

Genuine Swedish Craftsmanship

Based in Sölvesborg, Sweden, TekoTryck combines traditional craftsmanship with modern technology to create high quality products with a distinctly Swedish flavour.

The Printing Process

We use our own water-based colours, developed in-house, minimizing environmental impact and offering a sustainable alternative for customers caring for nature.

International Reach and Experience

With our experience in international business, we are happy to discuss ideas, processes and solutions; a reliable partner, supporting you through the whole business process.

William Morris Society

Our William Morris products are launched through a partnership with the William Morris Society and proudly printed by us in Sölvesborg, in the south of Sweden.
